

Leading from Any Seat:

Stories from the Cockpit

Shannon Huffman Polson

CONNECTION

A woman in military gear, including a helmet and a vest, is sitting in the cockpit of a vehicle. She is smiling and looking towards the camera. The cockpit is filled with various instruments and equipment. A sign on the left side of the cockpit reads "DO NOT GRAB".

GRIT: AT THE INTERSECTION OF YOUR PURPOSE AND YOUR PASSION.

TO LEAD

- laeden, to guide, to cause one to go with
- Causitive of liden, to travel

COMMUNICATION

A CALL IN THE BLIND IS NOT A LEADERSHIP TECHNIQUE.

A LEADER KNOWS TO LISTEN FIRST.

TO STAY FOCUSED ON YOUR PURPOSE, YOU
HAVE TO TUNE OUT THE NOISE.

OWNERSHIP

WHEN YOU FACE FEAR,
TURN TOWARD IT, AND FLY
DIRECTLY THROUGH IT.

SHANNON HUFFMAN POLSON

AUTHOR. SPEAKER. ADVENTURER. VETERAN.

